Three Weeks to Reach 100 Events - Volunteer Week Hawai'i 2019
Kanu Hawai'i, alongside local nonprofits and community organizations, to celebrate and grow the impact of volunteerism across Hawai'i

HONOLULU, HAWAII – On January 22nd, 2019 Kanu Hawai'i put out a call for 100 Events in the Next 60 Days for Volunteer Week Hawai'i, a collaborative effort among dozens of local nonprofits, community organizations, businesses, schools, and elected leaders throughout the state for Hawai'i's second annual celebration of National Volunteer Week. Kanu and its partners have already identified roughly 60 events and we seek your support to reach our goal of 100 events statewide by mid-March.

Volunteer Week Hawai'i is about cultivating aloha and perpetuating our island values through service. Thus far, volunteer opportunities include beach cleanups, cultural site restoration, park and community space beautification, and food drives, among others. Everyone can get involved, regardless of availability, interests, location, or abilities.

Events are happening on Hawaii, Maui, Lanai, Molokai, Oahu, and Kauai in the state's largest volunteer campaign, highlighting our collective impact for the greater good and fostering a shared sense of connectedness.

About Kanu Hawai'i

Kanu Hawai'i empowers people to build more environmentally sustainable, compassionate, and resilient communities rooted in personal commitments to change. Launched in 2008, Kanu Hawai'i is a movement of everyday people, working to protect and promote the things that make Hawai'i special - a connection to the aina, a culture of aloha, and local self-reliance. We strive toward change rooted in kuleana (responsibility) - a commitment to "be the change" even as we encourage change in others. Tens of thousands have joined the movement, committing to change in their own lives and standing together in campaigns focused on compassion, energy, food, waste, and civic engagement.
